Scripture

Genesis 6:5–9:17

Bible Truth

God was merciful to Noah and his family by saving them from the flood. God made a covenant with Noah, and Noah responded by thanking God.

Lesson Aim

To recognize that my heavenly Father will always be merciful to me, and to thank him for loving and saving me.

God's Promises

READ-TOGETHER VERSES

God has given his children wonderful promises in his Word. Read these verses together and discover what God has promised. Remember, God always does what he says he is going to do!

"I establish my covenant with you: Never again will all life be cut off by the waters of a flood; never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth."

Genesis 9:11

Do not be afraid, for I am with you.

Isaiah 43:5a

Those who know your name will trust in you, for you, LORD, have never forsaken those who seek you.

Psalms 9:10

For the LORD God is a sun and shield; the LORD bestows favor and honor.

Psalms 84:11a

The LORD is faithful to all his promises and loving toward all he has made.

Psalms 145:13b

Family Focus

Today the children learned that God showed mercy and love to Noah and his family, preserving them from the flood and blessing Noah. In response, Noah was obedient, thankful and trusting. Help your child understand that God is always loving, faithful and true to his promises. Together thank God for his Word and saving love.
