| 1 | God Has Spoken
  - God has spoken to us in his Word, the Bible.
  - The Bible is a covenant story—God’s covenant of grace through Jesus Christ. |
| 2 | Fast Forward through the Old Testament
  Overview of Old Testament |
| 3 | Fast Forward through the New Testament
  Overview of New Testament |
| 4 | A Biblical Covenant
  God is the One who
  - initiates,
  - establishes, and
  - sustains
  a covenant relationship with his people. |
| 5 | The Covenant with Adam
  Covenant of Works (also called the Covenant of Life)
  - [GOD SAID] You can eat of every tree in the garden except the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. In the day you eat of it you will die.
  Covenant of Grace
  - God will send a Redeemer who will defeat Satan and win salvation for his people. |
| 6 | The Covenant with Noah
  - God was faithful to his promise and at work to save his people in the midst of great wickedness in the world.
  - This salvation preserved the seed of the woman and judged the offspring of Satan. |
| 7 | The Covenant with Abraham, Part 1
  God promised to give Abraham a land and many descendants, and to make him into a great nation and a blessing to all peoples.
  - God sealed his covenant by passing through the cut pieces of animals, thereby guaranteeing that he would keep his promise.
  - One of Abraham’s descendants would be the promised Messiah, Jesus Christ, who would die on the cross to pay for our sin. |
| 8 | The Covenant with Abraham, Part 2
  God promised to give Abraham a land and many descendants, and to make him into a great nation and a blessing to all peoples.
  - God kept his promise to give Abraham a son in his old age, Isaac.
  - God confirmed his covenant by giving Abraham the sign of circumcision.
  - One of Abraham’s and Isaac’s descendants would be the promised Messiah, Jesus. |
| 9 | God Provided a Sacrifice
  - God confirmed his covenant promises to Abraham to give him a land, many offspring, and make him a blessing to all the nations.
  - Just as God provided a ram substitute for the sacrifice of Isaac, God provided Jesus as the substitute for us. He sacrificed his life to pay the penalty for our sin through death on the cross.
  - God demonstrated his love for us by fulfilling his promise to send the Savior. |
| 10 | God Confirmed His Covenant to Isaac and Jacob
  - God repeated—and continued to fulfill—the covenant promises he had made to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, starting with possession of land in Canaan.
  - God gave Jacob many descendants: 12 sons and a daughter.
  - The blessing of the covenant (God’s presence among his people) would arrive in the person of Jesus, from the line of Judah, one of Jacob’s sons. |
| 11 | God Used Joseph to Preserve His Covenant People
  - God intervenes in history to save his people by fulfilling his covenant promises.
  - Joseph foreshadowed the Lord Jesus Christ, who came as a servant, perfectly obeyed his Father, suffered greatly, and gave his life to save his people from their sin. We see how Jesus fulfilled God’s covenant promises to Adam, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and preserved his people through Joseph. |
| 12 | God Chose Moses
  - God revealed to Abraham that his descendants would be slaves for 400 years but that God would rescue them and punish their captors.
  - Even though we may become impatient as time passes, God always keeps his covenant promises in his time and in his way. |
| 13 | God Rescued the Israelites from Egypt
  - God delivered Abraham’s descendants from slavery and punished his enemy and theirs, keeping his covenant promise he had made centuries before.
  - The Passover lamb pointed ahead to Jesus, the Lamb of God, whose blood covered our sins and decisively defeated his and our enemy, Satan. |

| 1 | God prepared his people to receive his covenant with Moses:
   - God set his people apart and told them to cleanse themselves.
   - God is holy, and he calls his people to be holy.
   - God initiates, establishes, and keeps his covenant promises.
   - His covenant people have the privileges of God’s covenant of grace as well as responsibilities to be faithful to him, obey his commands, and keep his covenant. | Moses in his role as intercessor prefigured the final Priest, Jesus.
   - Jesus faithfully represents us before his Father, knowing full well what temptations and challenges face us.
   - The Father faithfully forgives those who confess their faithlessness.
   - Even though we receive forgiveness when we repent, we do sometimes experience the consequences of our sin. |
| 2 | The Covenant with Moses and God’s People
At Mount Sinai, God established his covenant with Israel, making them a nation and declaring Moses as the mediator of the covenant. | Korah’s Rebellion
God leads his covenant people through the ministry of the officers and institutions he has established in his Word. |
| 3 | Moses: The Man in the Middle
Moses points us to Christ, the perfect Mediator, who is the ultimate fulfillment of God’s covenant promise to deliver and be with his people. | Moses in his role as intercessor prefigured the final Priest, Jesus.
   - Jesus faithfully represents us before his Father, knowing full well what temptations and challenges face us.
   - The Father faithfully forgives those who confess their faithlessness.
   - Even though we receive forgiveness when we repent, we do sometimes experience the consequences of our sin. |
| 4 | The Tabernacle: God’s Tent of Meeting
The tabernacle pointed forward to Jesus, who dwelt among his people when he came to earth, and the Holy Spirit, who dwells within believers now. | Joshua: Israel’s New Leader
- God continually reminds us of his covenant promises throughout the Bible.
- The heart of the covenant is the personal relationship the believer enjoys with God through Christ. |
| 5 | The Great Day of Atonement
The Day of Atonement foreshadowed the perfect atonement for sin that Jesus Christ would make on the cross as part of God’s covenant of grace. | Jericho: It’s God’s Battle!
God gave Israel the Promised Land, just as he had promised in his covenant with Abraham. |
| 6 | God’s Faithfulness to Grumbling Israel
We have a covenant responsibility to thank God for providing for us—past, present, and future—and to remember his goodness to us every day. | The Impact of Achan’s Sin
God’s covenant of grace is corporate as well as individual. Therefore, the sin of one covenant member affects the whole community. |
| 7 | Two Believing and Ten Unbelieving Spies
- Moses in his role as intercessor prefigured the final Priest, Jesus.
- Jesus faithfully represents us before his Father, knowing full well what temptations and challenges face us.
- The Father faithfully forgives those who confess their faithlessness.
- Even though we receive forgiveness when we repent, we do sometimes experience the consequences of our sin. | Israel’s Renewed Commitment to God
God renews his covenant with his people in worship in order to encourage them to trust and serve their covenant-keeping God. |
